

PUSS IN BOOTS

When the miller died, his youngest son inherited only the cat which proved to be a remarkable animal as well as a good provider. This is the story of how a smart little cat changes the fortune of his simple master by outwitting an evil giant. The resourceful cat proves himself by making his master the king. On the way, the puss makes a fool of many animals and people, making for a fun filled reading.

PUSS IN BOOTS

QUESTIONNAIRE

Read the story of 'Puss in Boots' and answer the following questions:

Tick the correct option:

- a) When the miller died the youngest son inherited only _____.
- i) a dog ii) a donkey iii) a cat
- b) The cat proves himself by making his master _____.
- i) a king ii) a gentleman iii) a fool
- c) The puss makes a fool of many _____.
- i) boys and girls ii) animals and people iii) plants
- d) The cat changes the fortune of his master by-...
- i) outwitting an evil giant ii) by killing his elder brothers iii) by making fun of others